

This publication is dedicated to the too many class of 1975 members who have left this earth too soon. May every one of them rest in peace.

SWEET HOME SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 1975

AFTER HOURS

What life was like when school was out: after
school, weekends,
holidays, vacations,
sick days,
snow days

*Maybe the journey isn't so much about becoming anything.
Maybe it's about unbecoming
everything that isn't really you,
so you can be who you were meant to be in the first place.*

-Paulo Coelho

On behalf of our entire class, we extend our deepest gratitude to our generous benefactor, whose kindness made our reunion unforgettable by covering the cost of our tickets and enhancing our evening with incredible food, beverage, and overall experience upgrades.

We are also immensely grateful to the many donors whose contributions elevated every esthetic aspect of our event—from the décor and incredible music to this souvenir booklet—making it truly extraordinary.

—Laurie Enger Freehafer, Sweet Home Class of 1975.
